ABOUT US

Hello! My name is Chetan Mandaliya, and I'm a singer. and have been performing for 5 years. I have a versatile singing style and can perform various genres of music. I've received positive feedback from audiences for my ability to connect with them through my music and energetic performances.

Music has always been my passion, and I've honed my craft through madhusudhan apte sining vidhyalay. Over the years, I've had the pleasure of working with some incredibly talented musicians and producers, who have helped me develop my sound.

But for me, the true joy of singing comes from the connection I make with my audience. Music has the power to transcend boundaries and bring people together in a way that nothing else can. Whether I'm performing for a crowd of thousands or just singing to a small group of friends, I always strive to create a memorable experience that touches the hearts and souls of those who hear me.
